Tygers Upset State Ranked Teams

The Senior High Tygers turned out their best record in 15 years this season. Led by Buckeye Conference Coach of the Year, Dave Pierce, the Tygers pulled off upsets over 2nd ranked Findlay and 5th ranked Elyria.

Todd Blaising and Cliff Belmer were named team captains and most outstanding defensive lineman and offensive back respectively. Most outstanding offensive lineman was Mike Hoy, and defensive backs were Jim Scarbury, Jim Adams, and Alan Tasman.

Juniors Stage Home- coming

Juniors worked hard to present Homecoming, one of the big events of the fall. The assembly was held in the auditorium on October 15 to the theme "Stairway to Heaven." Decorations featured a gold covered stairway leading to the queen's chair among the clouds and stars.

After entering the auditorium, Tammy Taylor was crowned by the 1975 Queen Val Rogers. Co-captains, Cliff Belmer and Todd Blaising, then presented the game ball to Queen Tammy. State representative Sherrod Brown, a former student at MHS, was the guest speaker.

The queen and her court reigned at the Lorain Admiral King game the following night.

Girls' Tennis Team Improves

Despite a disappointing season of 3-8, the girls' tennis team showed much enthusiasm and gained valuable experience for next year. The girls widened their horizons by attending the sectional tournament, in which Janine Boocks placed third and qualified for the district competition held at Bowling Green State University.

Lori Hughes was named honorary captain of the team, Janine Boocks was most valuable player, and Lori Sqrow was most improved.

Band Provides Halftime Shows

The 110 piece Tyger marching band, under the direction of Mr. Steve Brown, provided football fans with spectacular halftime shows of marching and drilling this year. They also marched in many parades throughout the season.

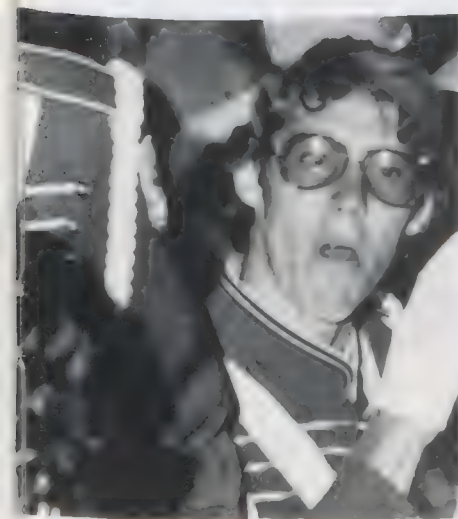

Officers this year were President Nick Ghessourhas, Vice-President Kevin Walker, Secretary Dawn Wunderlin, and Treasurer Barrie Geiger.

Jazz band members played for Varsity Varieties as well as many area homecomings and proms.

Volleyball Team Shows Determina- tion

Experience was not lacking on this year's volleyball team, as they finished with a 4-4 season. The highlight of the season was beating Shelby 2-1 in the opening game. Three year lettermen, Gail Kindinger, Michelle Brumm, and Andra Webb, served as tri-captains. Most valuable player was Andra Webb, while Sandra Taylor was named most improved.

Spirit Abounds at Senior High

This year apathy was conquered at Senior High with great work from the cheerleaders and Pep Club. Many pep assemblies were held throughout the year.

Mrs. Kohutek spent her first year as advisor to the Pep Club. Officers were Nelda Westlake, president; Barrie Geiger, vice-president; Ann Smith, secretary; and Lori Hughes, treasurer. Their main fund raising projects were the sales of pep ribbons and buttons, key rings, and Pep Club memberships.

Barb Thompson served as CHEERLEADING captain. One highlight of the year was attendance at summer camps. Varsity cheerleaders went to Malone College, while reserves went to Rio Grande. Miss Papenhausen and Mrs. Dunn again served as advisors.

Tyger Golfers Put Forth Effort

This year's golf team, under the coaching of Ken Fairchild, ended the season with an 0-12 record. Although their season was disappointing, they gained valuable experience for next year.

Phil Warga was selected as captain and was most valuable player. Greg Jackson received the award for most improved player.

Fashion Show Proves Successful

One of the Black Culture Club's major projects was the annual fashion show. It was held in the auditorium on November 4 as a paid assembly. Clothes were loaned by area retail clothing stores.

Other planned projects included a Christmas dance and Soul Review.

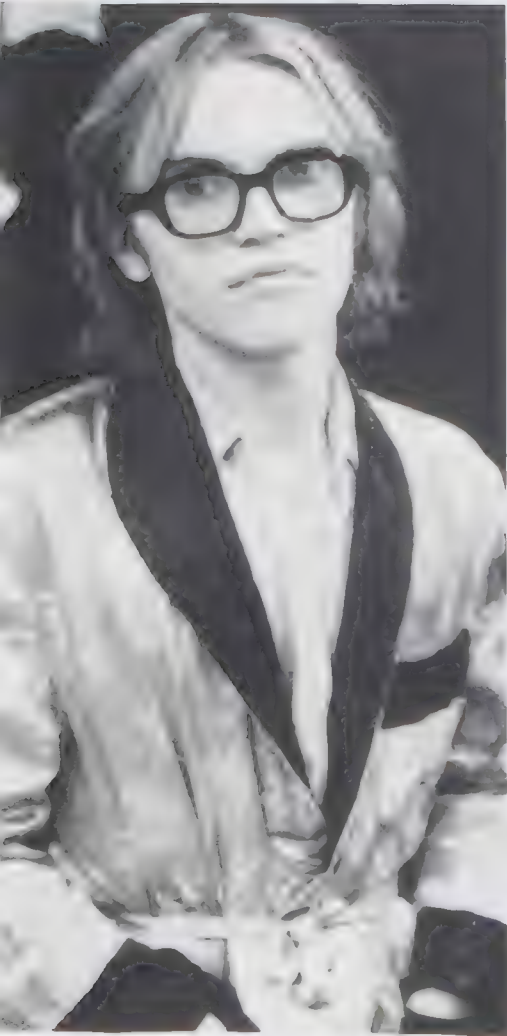

Mr. Pugh once again served as advisor to the club. Officers were Kim Brookins, president; Karen Tucker, vice-president; Pam Avery, secretary; and Diane Muffett, treasurer.

Right: "This is my land. It is mine. It is beautiful, and it is mine."

Students Present One Act Plays

The first major drama production was a series of three one act plays presented during the last week of October. They were directed by Mr. William Asher, and tryouts were open to any student.

"The Adventure of the Dying Detective" presented Sherlock Holmes in a case of attempted murder. Holmes pretended to be dying in order to trick Dr. Rattigan into a confession. An impressionistic stage setting and lighting effects were used in the production.

"Fables" was a collection of five scenes that asked various questions about life. They were open to a variety of interpretations by the audience.

"A Game" Was the acting out of a psychological experiment concerning property and each man's need to stake out a space for himself.

It ends in violence and gives the audience a chilling insight into human behavior.

Students Learn Business Skills

COE, under the advisorship of Mr. Neuerman, helped students find office jobs. They raised money with candy and bake sales and held a banquet at Brown Derby for their employers. Officers were Kay Matthews, president; Karen Tucker, vice-president; Renea Owens, secretary; and Dawn Artz, treasurer.

IOE Steno officers were Tammy Taylor, president; Shelli Phillips, vice-president; Vanessa Stroup, secretary; and Benita Hart, treasurer. Mrs. Williams advises the group. They sold stationery and tube socks and held bake sales.

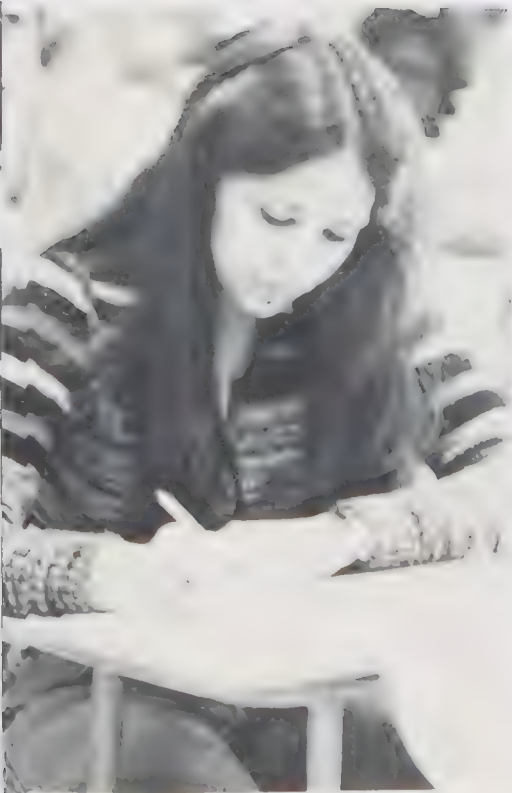

Clerk-Typists sold necklaces and held a car wash and bake sale. Officers were Sue Robey, president, Lori Kidwell, v.p.; Eleanor Bowens, secretary; and Patty Thompson, treasurer. Mr. Groff is the advisor.

DE, DCT Have Successful Year

The DCT class was advised by Mr. Finley again this year, with officers Debbie Simmons, president; Betty Bond, vice-president; Mary Medina, secretary; and Kim Rickey, treasurer.

Highlights of the year were the Halloween party, Christmas party, a breakfast at Mohican Lodge at the end of the year, and 5 field trips to area businesses.

Mr. Davis is advisor of the DE classes. His officers were Steve Caldwell, president; Tammy Roberts, secretary; and Vicki Robertson, treasurer.

Classes participated in a conference in Columbus and held their employers' banquet at the San-Dar.

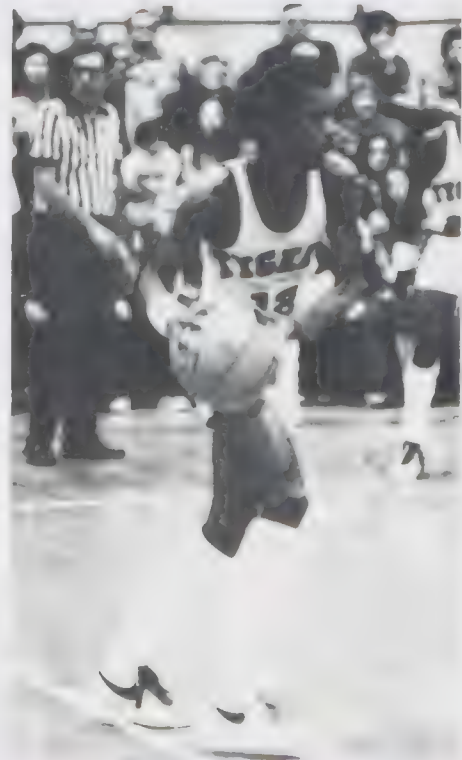

They sold candles and calendar towels for money-making projects.

Tygers Have .476 Season

The Tyger basketball team came off with a 10-11 record this year. Led by team captains Eric Jefferson, Cliff Belmer, and Henry Washington, the Tygers shot their way to the sectional finals. They defeated Bellevue and Fremont before losing to Tiffin Columbian.

Awards went to Eric Jefferson, leading foul shooter; Cliff Belmer, leading rebounder; and Jerry Powell, most assists. Belmer and Jefferson tied for the most valuable player award.

The highlight of the Tyger season was an exciting triple overtime with Madison.

Scholarship, Fun Provide Outlets

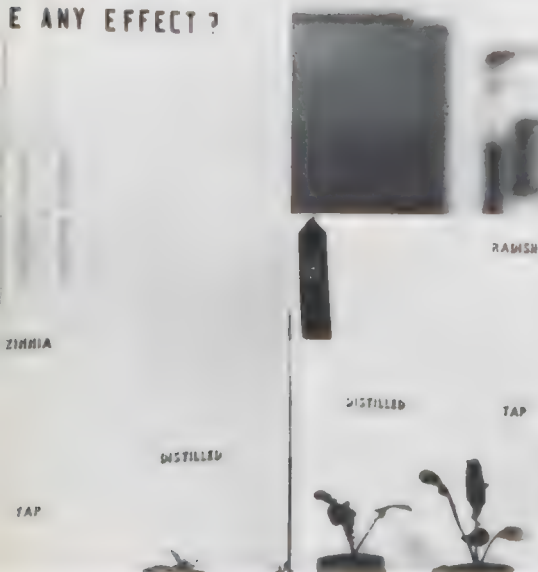

Varsity Varieties was one of the highlights of the year at Senior High. It was held on November 23 and 24 in the auditorium. Directing this year's show was Edith Reynolds. Kerry Arthur and Van Willis served as co-producers, while Tammy McQuillen was stage manager.

The Academic Challenge Team traveled to Cleveland for their taping at WEWS. They came home with a victory over two other schools. The program was seen locally on May 7.

Three students from this year's Science Fair made it all the way to the state competition. Geoff Fischer came home with a superior, while Sue Billingsley and LaRonda Price both earned excellents.

Matmen Have Good Season

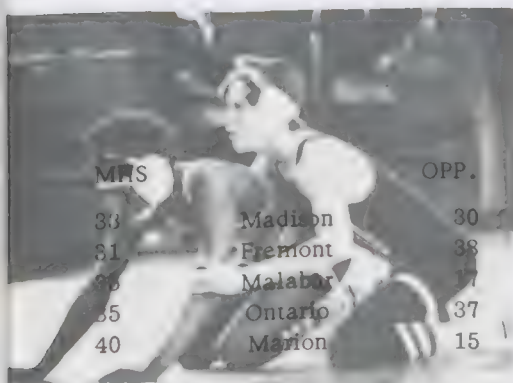

The wrestlers held a 4-1 record this season. They placed second in the J.C. Gorman, Galion Invitational, Buckeye Conference, and sectional, and took third in the district.

John Selmon, co-captain, was sectional and district champion and placed third in the state. Vince Petrella also qualified for state after winning sectional and district championships.

Post season awards went to John Selmon, most valuable player; Vince Petrella, most improved; Paul Twyman, outstanding sophomore; and Luther Branham, most pins. Steve Owens was also a co-captain.

OWE-OWA Train Students for Work

The OWE and OWA are clubs designed to prepare students for the working world. Students work half day.

OWE officers were President Mike Inman, V.P. Scott Lyons, and Secretary Penny Lehman. Mr. Lutz advises this group.

OWA, under the sponsorship of Mr. Derr, had a tote bag sale and a Spring Disco. Jim Hesler was president, Dennis Stickney, V.P.; Liz Bond, secretary; and Sharon King, treasurer.

Tyger Girls Hustle Together

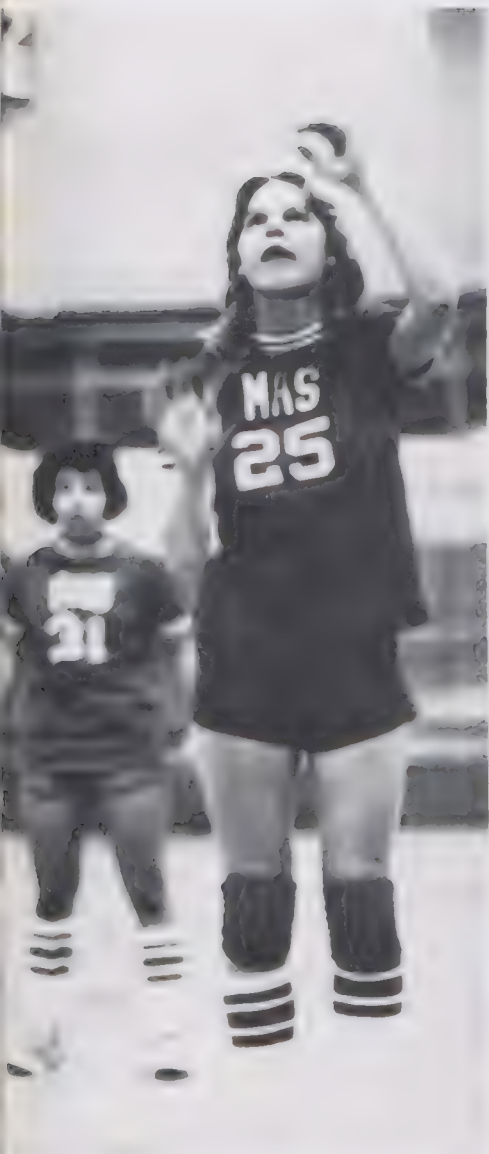

The girls' basketball team had a disappointing but hard working season, ending up 4-8. Along with all other winter sports teams, the girls had many games cancelled due to the energy situation and the closing of schools.

The squad will have eight letter winners returning.

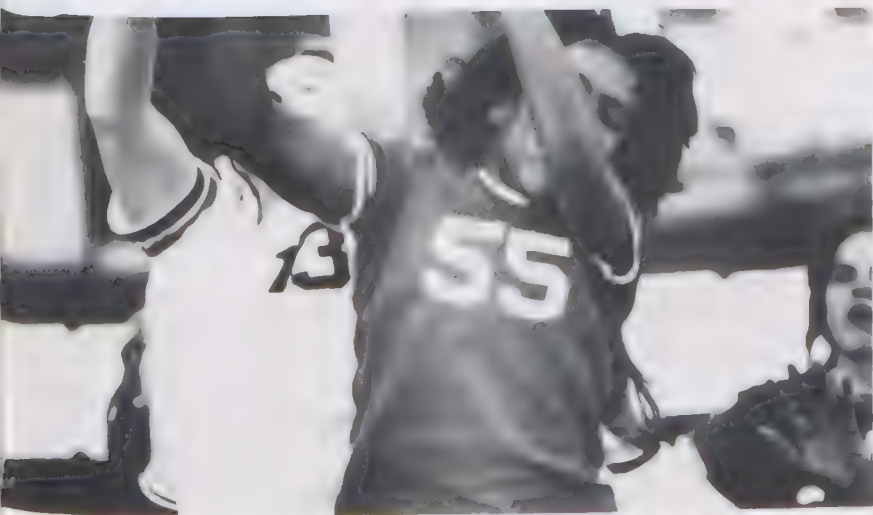

Tri-captain awards went to Gail Kindinger, Michelle Brumm, and Andra Webb. Most assists went to Andra Webb, and Gail Kindinger took the award for most rebounds.

The team was coached this year by John Miefert, assisted by Dave Prosser.

The Senior High Red Cross, under the leadership of Mrs. Tope, worked hard for many needy causes. They made Christmas baskets, collected toys and clothes for the needy, and organized the first Bloodmobile visit to Senior High. Wendell Harkins and Colette Smith served as co-presidents.

The German Club was reorganized this year under the guidance of Miss Olszewski.

The Chess Club again participated in various tournaments around the state.

The Key Club had a successful year under the leadership of President Joe Higgs, V.P. Kevin Boals, Secretary Randy Campbell, and Treasurer Tony Mayo. They sponsored the annual Relays Dance and worked with Kiwanis and the career development office in sponsoring the sophomore career exploration program.

The Varsity M club helped with Christmas baskets and drove athletes to houses during the relays.

The first season for the softball team was a long, hard learning experience. Fastpitch softball, new to the area, was a whole new ball game, and there were many techniques to learn.

Although the record was 2-9, many games were close ones, the most memorable being the Shelby contest, where the Tygers came back in the bottom of the seventh to earn 15 runs, only to fall short by one.

The highest batting average belonged to Monica Holzwarth, who slugged out a .447. Michelle Brumm earned the most valuable player award, while Betty Hriesik was named Most Improved. Linda Simpson was given an award for most team spirit.

Trackmen Show Superiority

For the first time in Tyger history the boys' track team became champs in the Buckeye Conference and the sectionals and were runners-up in the district.

Ivan Peoples received awards for most valuable player and most points, while Scooter Bonner received most improved. Larry Bradley was elected captain.

The six trackmen who entered state championship were Bonner, Peoples, Del-Ray Feagin, Michael Davis, Jerry Powell, and Robbie Williams.

Tyger Girls Look to Future

The Senior High Girls' Track Team will be back next season with a strong veteran squad. This year the young team put together a fine relay group that finished third in the sectionals.

Leading the team this season were Casey Bonner, most valuable; Sandra Carr, captain; and Janine Boocks, most improved.

Prom Popular With Seniors

The 1977 Senior Prom took place at Snow Trails Ski Resort on May 27. The lodge provided a romantic atmosphere for the seniors' last social function of the year. A buffet dinner was followed by socializing and dancing to the band Blue Gold.

The after-prom activities consisted of a choice of two movies, ROMEO AND JULIET or THE LONGEST YARD, held at the Richland Mall Cinema. Later seniors enjoyed bowling at Park Lanes.

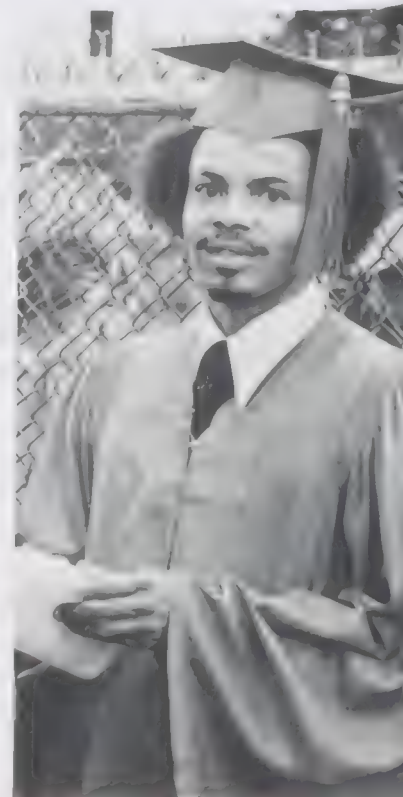

Seniors Hold Last Formal Assembly

The 131st annual commencement was held at Arlin Field on Saturday, June 4, at 6:15 P.M. It was once again combined with Baccalaureate.

Rev. Eugene Jordan gave the invocation, after which Pam Patton, class president, welcomed class members and guests. Rev. Henry Washington offered the message.

Valedictorian, Geoff Fischer, and Russ Howell, Student Council President, also spoke before the awarding of diplomas.

After Rev. Cloyd Kress gave the benediction, the tassels were turned, and the class marched out to the theme from "Pomp and Circumstance." Music was provided by the Concert Band.

SENIORS

Class of 1977 Completes School Careers

The sophomore year of the Class of '77 can be remembered as a time of maturation. Officers chosen were Pam Patton, president; Lucille Stolle, vice-president; Margo Davis, treasurer, and Edith Reynolds, secretary. Mrs. Ann Gerrell and Mr. Doug Castle were chosen as advisors.

Homecoming was the highlight of the junior year. Mr. William Asher replaced Mr. Castle as advisor. New officers were Edith Reynolds, president; Delores Taylor, vice-president; Marcia Hall, treasurer; and Louise Harkins, secretary.

To raise money for the senior prom, the class sponsored Varsity Varieties and a very successful citrus fruit sale. New president and vice-president were Pam Patton Crisp and Rollie Harper. Class Day, the prom, and Commencement made many lasting memories for the Class of 1977.

UNDERCLASSMEN

Juniors Hold Successful Homecoming

Highlight of the year for juniors was the presentation of the annual Homecoming assembly in October. The theme chosen was "Stairway to Heaven."

Following that, new officers were elected. They were Robyn Kegley, president; Ernie Mosier, vice-president; Rosetta Garcia, secretary; and Sue Billingsley, treasurer. Miss Papenhausen and Mr. Gross are advisors for the Class of '78.

Other projects for the year included a bake sale, a Tyger decal sale, a car wash in May, and an end of the year sucker sale.

Sophomores Make Good Start

Sophomore officers elected in the fall were Rusty White, president; Janine Boocks, vice-president, Tony Leverette, treasurer; and Debbie Pollman, secretary. Mrs. Beth Tope was asked to advise the class.

The first project was the opening of a coat check for all basketball games. Other successful projects included a car wash, a T-shirt sale, and a bake sale.

Gorman-Rupp congratulates....

Everyone at Gorman-Rupp takes this opportunity to compliment the graduating seniors on a job well done. From this milestone on, what you do and what you accomplish will depend largely on you. Lay your plans and then make them happen. With your plans go all our wishes for success and happiness in the years ahead.

MANSFIELD, OHIO

An Expression of our Appreciation . . .

The Manhigan of 1977 was carefully put together to preserve the memories for you, the students of Mansfield Senior High. As co-editors we would like to thank those people involved in making these memories possible.

First we would like to express our special thanks to our dedicated advisor, Mr. David Gross. He not only served as an advisor but also as a friend to everyone on the staff.

Next we would like to thank our staff and photographers for sharing their time and talents with us and for being so cooperative.

Thanks goes to Mr. Au and the Business Staff who organized ads, sales, and distribution of the books.

We would also like to express our appreciation to our Taylor Yearbook Representatives, Mr. Steve White and Mr. Tom Kiess, who gave us suggestions and encouragement which helped make our book a success.

House of Portraits and Buell-Kraft deserve our thanks for their help with the photography in the Manhigan.

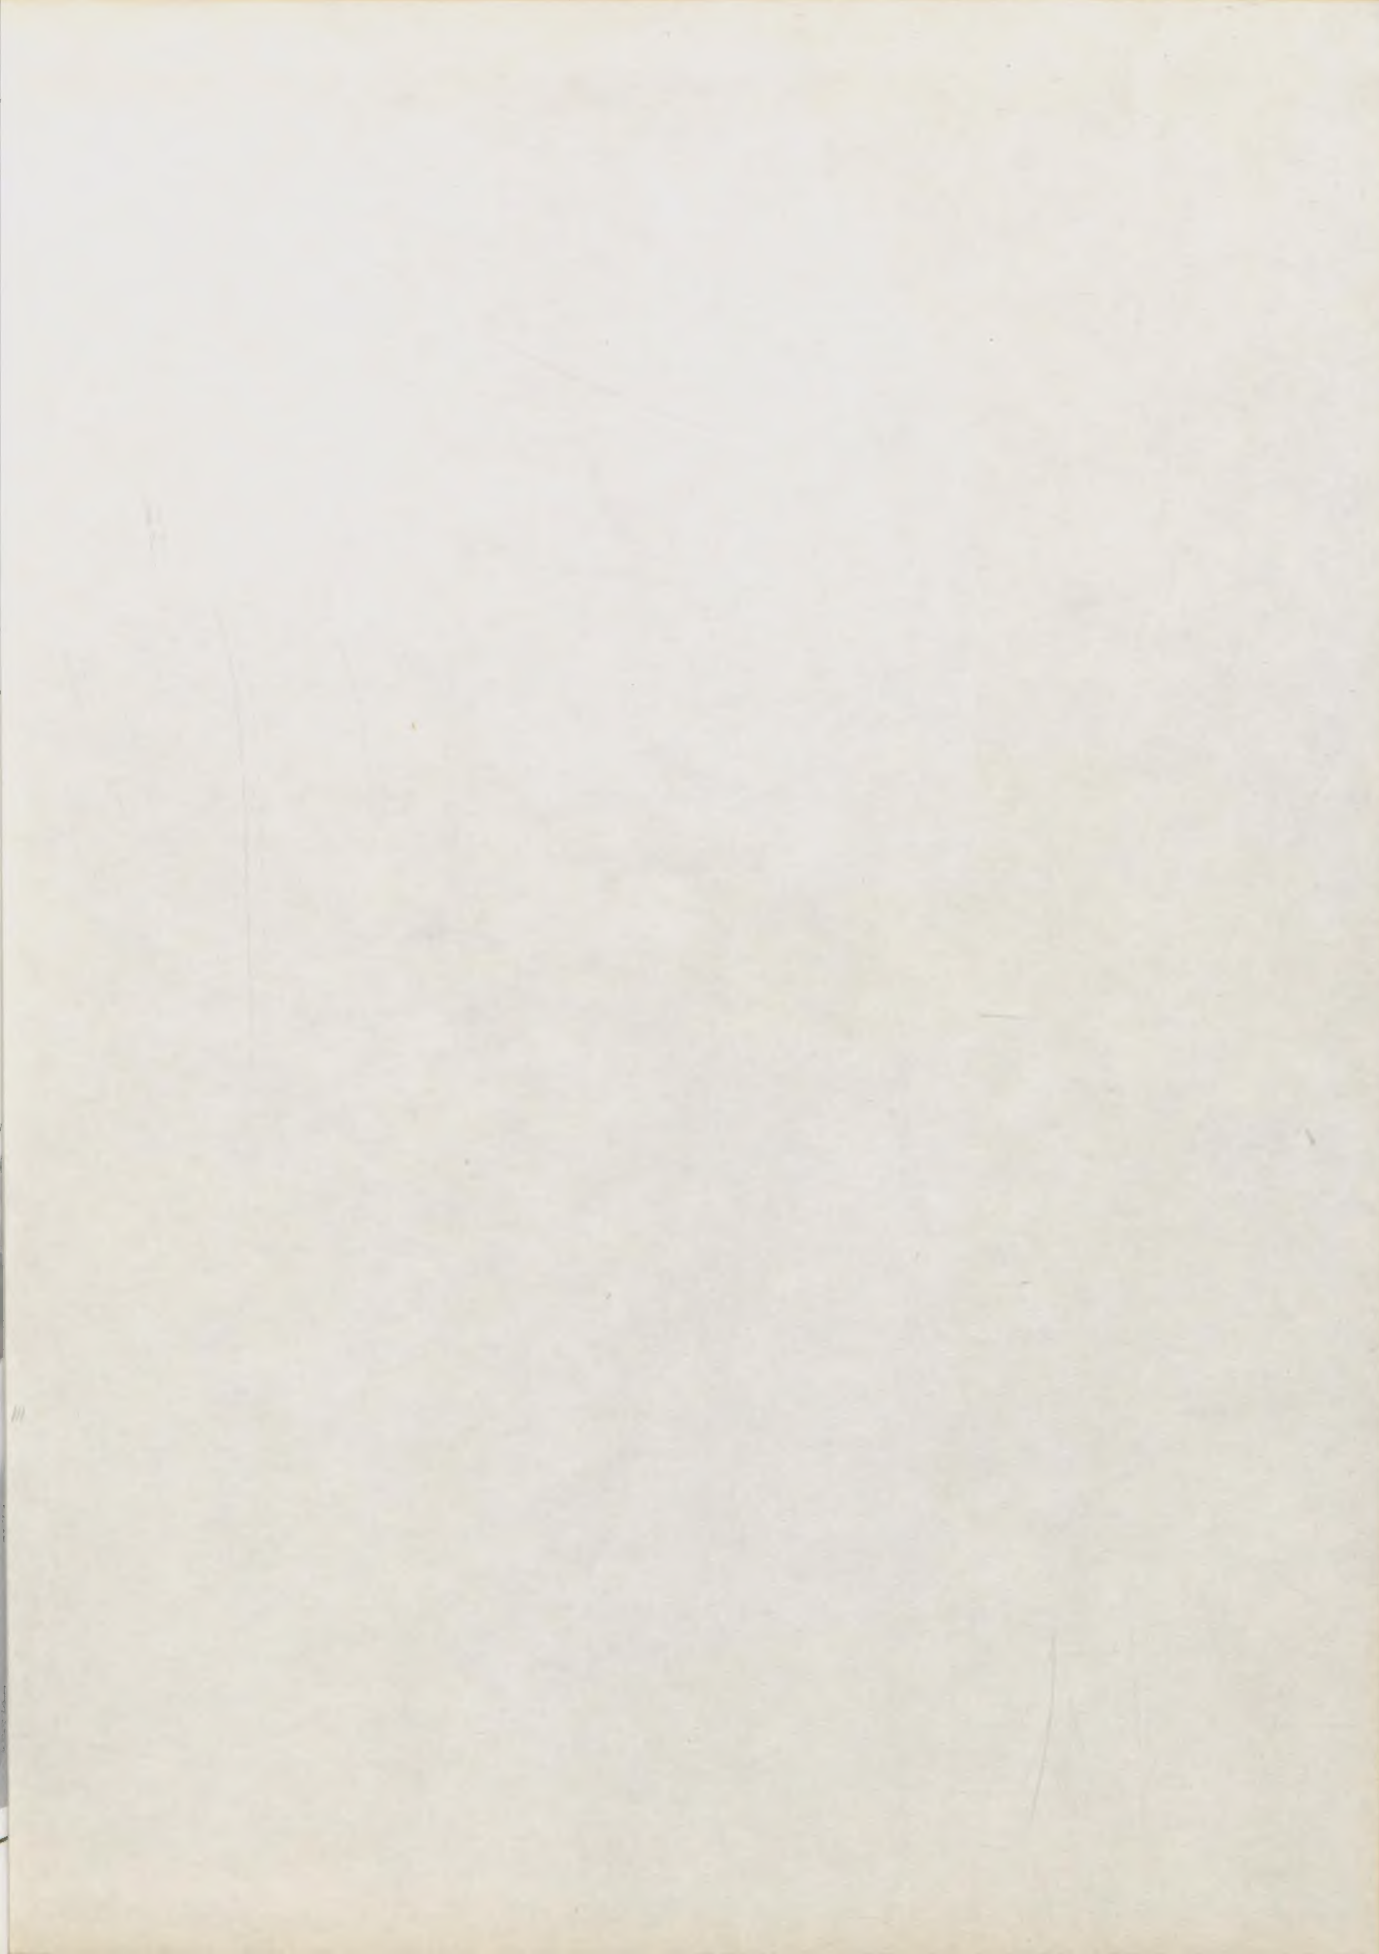

Finally we must credit Sailor Music which gave us permission to use lyrics from Steve Miller's "Fly Like an Eagle," copyright 1976.

We wish next year's staff the best of luck on their book.
